
Animation Producer's Guild

“A club by producers for producers”

Why a Club for Animation Production?

Animation Production within studios

An Animation studio's production department is often one of the largest groups within the pipeline

- Producers
- Supervisors
- Coordinators
- Managers
- Assistants

Animation Production within school settings

Production is often overlooked in art-focused education

- SCAD Academia
Offers one course currently
- SCAD Clubs
There are a myriad of clubs dedicated to all steps of the pipeline BUT production
- Other Schools
SCAD's competitors Calarts and Ringling likewise share these same issues

APG Mission

To provide a space for SCAD's production management students to learn & grow together.

Lectures

→ Software Tutorials

Learn the basics of the industry level production software such as Shotgrid, Google Sheets, Microsoft Excel & more.

→ Production Etiquette

Get familiarized with the dos & don'ts of production as well as the myriad of terms used in the production world.

Workshops

- Pipeline Discussion Roundtables
- How to use Shotgrid, Google Sheets and More
- Hands on Experiences and Demos

Guest Speakers

- Industry Professionals
- SCAD Alumni within the Industry
- Professors with Production Experience

Where To Find Us

APG meets every Friday at 5pm EST on Zoom. Anyone is welcome to attend our meetings or become members-from freshman to graduate students, we support everyone!

Meet the Council

The council of the club is made up of students with past production experience, equipped to give insight to first-time producers
